The Problem with Conspiracy Theories

Posted on 29th August 2020

By Keith Mann

The term 'conspiracy theory' was first introduced into the popular culture by the CIA in the 1960's following a stirring of consciousness after the president's motorcade was showered with bullets and the public expressed their disbelief that a lone gunman did it. Since then this thought stopper has been used endlessly to shout down anyone raising doubts about anything officials say.

Look around, there have seldom been more doubts about a tale than there are about Covid-19 and right on cue those doubts are met with a chorus of "conspiracy theory!". Let history repeat!

The first story we are told we tend to run away with. Here we are told some horrid bats at a Chinese seafood market passed a virus along to someone who subsequently passed it around the world. The evidence for this unlikely theory is scant. Well it's actually confined to some mainstream news headlines. There is no proof, there is no conclusive science; there has been no independent inquiry or trial. The first coronavirus infections have in fact been documented many weeks prior to the wet market story being spread. Tests of bats and all the other unfortunate animals at that wet market also proved negative for SARS-CoV-2. According to Colin Carlson, a professor at Georgetown University who studies the spread of such zoonotic viruses, which transmit between

The narrative is a conspiracy theory.

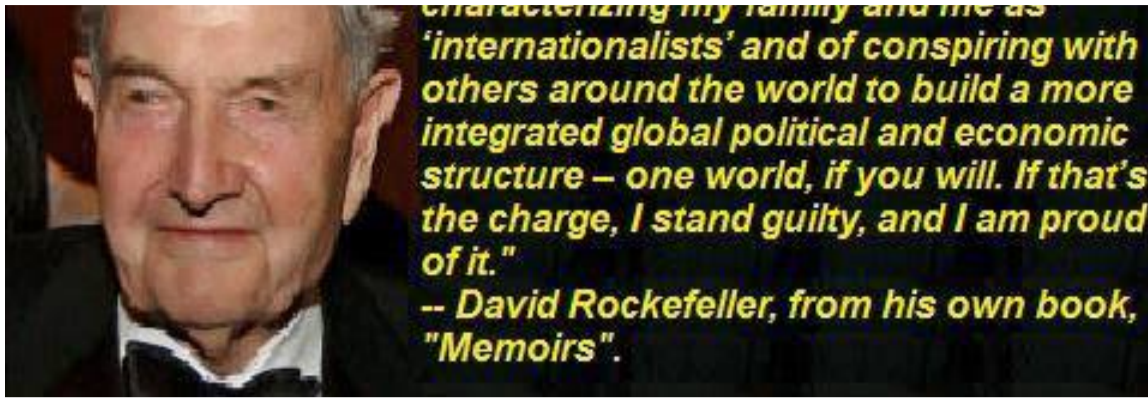

This whole event follows the disturbing pattern of recent times whereby trial by journalism is used to guide human destiny. On 9/11, take note, whatever you believe happened it was journalists who solved the crime on TV within minutes of the event and that developed into the narrative and bad news for humanity.

We can find evidence of a manipulated virus that was released from one of the numerous bio-labs known to be messing around with these viruses in what they call 'gain-of-function' research, which enhances the virus transmission capabilities. [2]

And we can find evidence that suggests some in the predator class were well prepared to impose a new direction for human society way before the virus was released, one they have rolled out in a coordinated fashion across the planet ever since with no end in sight. Event 201 was staged in NYC on October 18 2019, 6 weeks before the first illness from the coronavirus was actually reported from Wuhan, China. This was a curiously creepy exercise (preparing for a coronavirus pandemic) hosted by the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security in partnership with the World Economic Forum and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Whatever the true purpose of this event, prepped to stop the virus they most certainly weren't. [3]

This simulation also included staged news reports that were fabricated just for this exercise and they are eerily similar to reports we are currently seeing regarding this real-world coronavirus event. They also discussed the need to "control the narrative" which is very much in play as doctors and nurses and independent researchers and journalists are being censored and banned across social media networks and the mainstream media. A Rockefeller Foundation document published in 2010 predicted how a pandemic can be used as an excuse to establish global authoritarian power. [4] The film Plandemic joins the dots on all this and explores some incredible facts you won't see in the controlled mainstream news. [4]

Researchers of geo political shenanigans have warned us for some time that such an agenda as we see unfolding was in the planning. They warned of microchips in humans, of mass mandatory vaccination campaigns, of false flag events to instill fear, of the removal of liquid currency to be replaced by a digital form of control, of depopulation on a massive scale and of the imposition of martial law and full spectrum control by a global fascist regime known variously as the New World Order, the Deep State, the shadow government or the Illuminati. Alternatively we, the 99%, awoken to this threat and transformation our society into the kind of utopia we have long dreamt of where psychos don't have any power. [5]

If we look we can we see the deliberate elimination of the elderly in care homes in various countries. [6] Or, if you like just an unfortunate series coincidences by world leaders who have shut down economies to protect the elderly and vulnerable. Let's see if that stacks up

We can see the mass unemployment sweeping through society. "Unemployment is predicted to soar to the highest level ever due to Covid-19 after 600,000 people lost their jobs in three months." [7]

We can see the rise of depression and suicides. "...a new report by the Well being Trust released last month found that 75,000 additional people could die from what they called "deaths of despair," (which include suicide and substance use) because of Covid-19." [8]

The rise in domestic violence. "Refuge, the UK's largest domestic abuse charity says calls to its Helpline have risen by 25% since lockdown measures began."[9]

The rise of fear, anxiety and isolation not least among dementia patients who cannot understand why their families no longer visit. "It is well known that feelings of isolation and loneliness have increased during coronavirus lockdowns. For people suffering from dementia, restrictions have deprived them of social contact and routine stimulation." [10]

The social isolation and programming of our children.

The back door grinding down of the health care system and cancellation of essential medical treatment leading to untold unnecessary deaths. “A recent report from Italy found that there had been almost 12,000 excess deaths from non-Covid causes since the beginning of their lockdown, many of which were from strokes and heart attacks.”

“As many as 6.3 million people are expected to develop TB as cases go undiagnosed and untreated between now and 2025, a study published by Stop TB Partnership on Wednesday showed, with 1.4 million people predicted to die during this time.”

“Amid a mandatory national lockdown, the rates of amputations skyrocketed at a hospital far from the hardest-hit region as many patients developed gangrene.”

“The estimates we are looking at indicate that in the first year of the pandemic, we’ll lose 2.3 million children just from the disruption to services due to COVID alone – the entire population of Houston. It’s really significant.”

The list is endless. [11]

"The world has never faced a hunger emergency like this." [12]

The forgotten victims of the plandemic, the SARS-CoV-2 long-haulers who get minimal help from the half functioning medical system and are seldom mentioned by the virtue signaling compliant who call the non-compliant "selfish" for not wearing face coverings that don't work, that maintain a high level of fear and give a false sense of security, and for refusing to silently engage with the totalitarian horror story panning out here. [13]

The rapid erosion of civil liberties and the threats of punishment for those who are resisting the rise of fascism including violence and abuse from compliant citizens who blindly enforce all this on behalf of the predator class. Fines of £10,000 are now being imposed on peaceful UK citizens who organise parties, raves and gatherings of more than 30 people. Piers Corbyn (73) was one of the first to be fined £10,000 in late August for arranging a gathering of 35,000 citizens in Trafalgar Square who object to this insanity. Mass gatherings of mask-less people on beaches, at raves and on protests have never yet proven dangerous in spite of the dire warnings of death and suffering from the fear mongering media and politicians and compliant. [14]

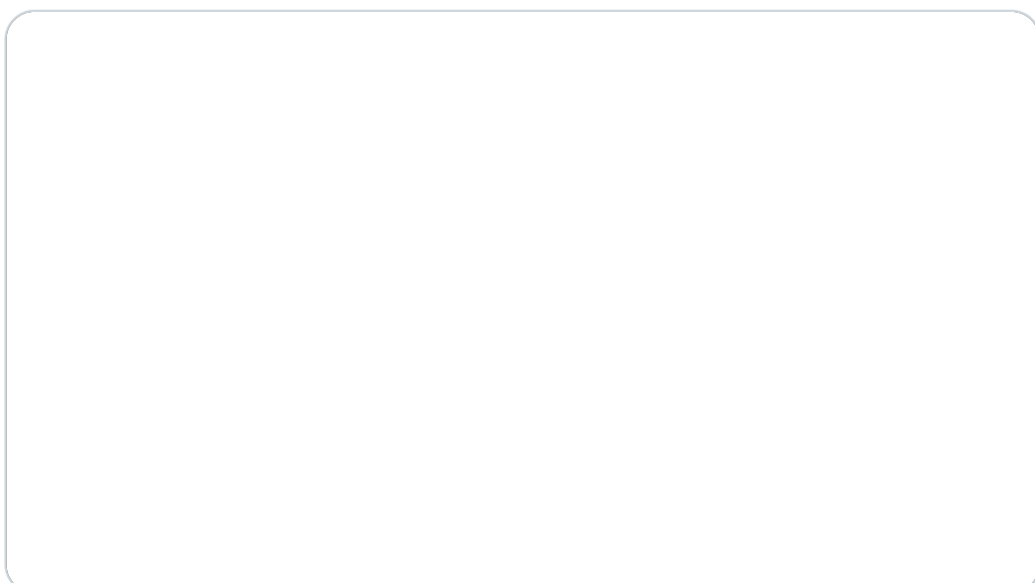

What of the promise that a dangerous experimental vaccine will set us free from fear, one that parallels the hollow promise made to those entering Auschwitz that work would set them free.

And what about the microchip/digital tracking tattoo in the vaccines. [15] Didn't Nazi's tattoo and perform medical experiments on their slaves?

And the decimation of wild bat populations in response to the wet market conspiracy theory. "Despite wildlife campaigners assuring that bats cannot directly infect humans with Covid-19, the 'witch hunt' for these flying mammals and exterminating their colonies is on the rise." [16]

The wildlife killed by disinfectants, the mass production of plastic screens for commercial premises and the billions and billions of used plastic-made face masks' recklessly dumped. "The majority of masks are manufactured from long-lasting plastic materials, and if discarded can persist in the environment for Decades To Hundreds Of Years. This means they can have a number of impacts on the environment and people." [17]

The impact on health of inhaling ones own waste. [18]

And the risk of making matters worse through improper use. [19]

The PCR test is worse than useless and not fit for purpose. [20]

The Masks don't work. The WHO have admitted their purpose is more about "Reminding people to be compliant with other measures". [21]

This is just the tip of the iceberg and it is going to get a whole lot worse before we either stop it or the aforementioned plan to enslave humanity is realised.

The vaccine makers with the willing help from governments have exempt themselves from liability for the damage their products inevitably do. This is a clear warning of what is to come for recipients and is absolutely guaranteed to leave a much bigger scar than the virus itself. [22]

And what of the suppression of effective treatments in the here and now such as hydroxychloroquine, vitamin C, vitamin D and zinc. Not a word has been said it all this time about immune support. This is beyond comprehension unless the goal is to vaccinate no matter what which of course it is! “Researchers analyzed patient data from 10 countries. The team found a correlation between low vitamin D levels and hyperactive immune systems. Vitamin D strengthens innate immunity and prevents overactive immune responses. The finding could explain several mysteries, including why children are unlikely to die from COVID-19”: [23]

And the avoidable deaths of hospitalised patients subjected to killer ventilators. A considerable percentage of total deaths were not due to the virus but the inappropriate treatment. “Covid death

I became infected in March with SARS-CoV-2, S strain, (confirmed by high tech bio-resonance technology) and had a difficult journey eventually requiring my lungs be drained of fluid. My experience was made much worse by the dangerous advice I was given by the NHS and my experience mirrors many others. The virus is real but the danger it poses has been blown out of all proportions. [24]

When people call this thing a hoax it is with good reason. No deadly viral pandemic needs to be hyped up with so much deception and outright lies.

In March 2020, the UK government's SAGE (Scientific Advisory Group for Emergencies) produced a document, 'Options for increasing adherence to social distancing measures'. In it they bemoaned that the public were not yet frightened enough: "A substantial number of people still do not feel sufficiently personally threatened." To remedy the flagging fear campaign they concluded that they needed to dial up the terror: "The perceived level of personal threat needs to be increased among those who are complacent, using hard-hitting emotional messaging." [25]

And this isn't a conspiracy? They are even silencing doctors and nurses and others with the truth to tell about what's really going on. It isn't the virus we need to concern ourselves with to the point of self destruction it is those who are leading us over the cliff. [26]

As deaths have subsided, due in no small part to a weakened virus, testing has been increased and as such more cases are being identified. Not deaths or even hospitalisations just infections and these are being cynically reported as something to fear with no mention of the often benign, beneficial effect of acquiring immunity or the fact the annual flu virus kills more but with little fanfare. Added to all this the death count is wildly exaggerated with anyone testing positive in the past who later dies of another cause being counted as a Covid death even if they are hit by a bus!

5,000 on the list had died of “poisoning” and vast numbers it turns out died of other ailments and with not of Covid-19! Given that postmortems don’t figure in this new reality the true number of Covid deaths will never be known. In the US cash incentives for hospitals to record Covid as the cause of death no matter the true cause have elevated the numbers further and many others have been counted as infected even though they were never even tested! “When I’m writing up my death report I’m being pressured to add Covid,” [Dr]Erickson said. “Why is that? Why are we being pressured to add Covid? To maybe increase the numbers, and make it look a little bit worse than it is?”

“If you died of a clear alternate cause, but you had Covid at the same time, it’s still listed as a Covid death,” Dr. Ngozi Ezike, the director of Illinois’s Department of Public Health explained to reporters.” [27]

It’s just a mask they demand, “just wear the frickin mask”. But the mask is just one more stepping stone toward totalitarianism, the next of which will be the vaccine for which the same characters are already demanding we all “just frickin take...” for the very same reason. Nearly 10 million people die ever year of cancer yet vaccines cause cancer!

The problem with conspiracy theories is that most people believe them without a second thought when they are drilled home endlessly by official sources. Conspiracy theories have throughout history been used against humanity as tools for starting wars and restricting freedoms. It is a given that the bigger the lie the more people believe it. How often are we reminded of the terror of 9/11 with not a shred of evidence to back up the official conspiracy theory? Today in a daily running commentary the ‘deadly disease’ infection rate pours from the news reports and maintains the fear, but the reality is it is widely exaggerated to the point that the virus is nothing compared to the fear mongering, which is being used to wage war on humanity and remove more freedoms than ever before.
